UNDERSTANDING THE REVISED MASS TEXT

On Pentecost Sunday (weekend of June 11/12) there will be the introduction of changes to some of the prayers and responses at Mass. The changes will be for both the Priest and the people. Outlined below are the underlying principles for the change and this week the changes to the Glory to God or Gloria.

NB: The changes are not changes in the structure or the ritual of the Mass. The structure of the Mass with its INTRODUCTORY RITE, LITURGY OF THE WORD, LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST and CONCLUDING RITE remains the same.

The rationale for the changes in the words and sentence structures are so that the English translation of the Mass better reflects the original Latin Mass. To achieve this objective the rule of translation requires that every word in the Latin original must be represented in the English translation and the Latin sentence structure is to be maintained as far as possible.

The view of the Bishops of the English speaking world is that the new translation will be more biblical, have closer ties to the liturgy of the early Christian Church, as well as being more sacred and prayerful.

EUCHARIST - What we Pray and what we Believe shapes how we live:

- ◆ Throughout the Church's history, the underlying dynamic of the Eucharist has remained the same: Christians gather to celebrate the Eucharist and are then sent forth to live what they have celebrated.
- ◆ The Eucharist has a unique and central role in the life of the Church.
- ◆ The Eucharist is the central act of our personal and communal salvation.
- ◆ Participation in the Eucharist is to shape how we live our lives.

The Third Theological Principle Underpinning the Revised Eucharistic Liturgy:

Paschal Mystery - All liturgy is paschal.

- ◆ The liturgy is the Church's privileged means whereby believers participate in the Paschal Mystery of Christ, ie Passion, Death and Resurrection of Jesus.
- ◆ To name 'Christ our Lord' at the conclusion of the Church's liturgical prayers, therefore, is to invoke the resurrected Christ as our unique mediator with God, who never ceases to intercede for us at the right hand of the Father (cf Rom 8:34; Heb 1:30)
- ◆ The mystery of faith (Memorial Acclamation) added to the Eucharistic Prayers after Vatican II helps underscore the paschal character of all liturgy: We proclaim your Death, O Lord, and profess your Resurrection until you come again.
- ◆ It is precisely in the celebration of the liturgy that the dying and rising of Christ intersects with our very human lives in need of redemption and sanctification. Nothing could be more consoling than to realise that it is through this celebration that our deaths and defeats in life have been overcome, and that from the Resurrection of Christ comes our real life.
- ◆ The Paschal Mystery of Christ is accomplished once and for all and yet is continually appropriated by the Church in the celebration of the liturgy.

GLORY TO GOD OR GLORIA

PRESENT TEXT

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to his people on earth.
Lord God, heavenly King, almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us.

You are seated at the right hand of the Father;
receive our prayer.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

NEW TRANSLATION

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you;
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, only begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;

You are seated at the right hand of the Father;
have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

The text in the new translation printed in bold highlight the actual changes in the revised version of the Glory to God or Gloria. There will be a need to revise the musical setting for the Gloria and other parts of the Mass that are sung.

LITURGY AND PRAYER IN THE CLUSTER

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION:

'At the Stillpoint of the Turning World - Meditating in the Christian Tradition' is a DVD produced by the School of Prayer as a practical tool for learning and understanding more about Christian Meditation and discovering the various ways in which we too can benefit from the fruits of this contemplative practice. The purpose of this one-off session in the Pastoral Cluster is to look at the long and rich tradition of meditation in the Christian tradition. At the end of the session there will be an opportunity to experience Christian Meditation.

Date... Thursday May 19, 2011

Time... 7.30-9.00pm

Venue... Pastoral Cluster Community Centre, 147 Separation St Bell Park

This session will be facilitated by experienced practitioners of Meditation. There is no cost but to assist the Office of Evangelisation with catering, please RSVP to Suzanne Hermon on 9926 5761 or office@evangelisation.org. Alternatively, phone the Pastoral Cluster Office on 5278 1343.

THANKSGIVING:

Thank you to all who contribute regularly, to support our Parish.

For those who give weekly & monthly, the next set of Thanksgiving envelopes is ready to collect today.

A few people have new numbers, starting on 5th June.

Letters are laid out in street order, regardless of suburb.

◆ If you would like to begin contributing regularly by envelope or credit card.

◆ If you would like to change your pledge, or your frequency of giving, please fill in a pink form & return to Helen Brislane, Parish Office, or email – helen.brislane@netspace.net.au

Thank you

STEWARDSHIP CORNER - Thoughts on Giving

"I came so that they may have life and have it more abundantly" - John 10:10

We may think that filling our lives with all sorts of riches is what Jesus meant by having life abundantly. Yet, in reality, when we really take time to know God through prayer and scripture, we realise that the truly abundant life Jesus offers is a simple life of prayer and service.

A VOCATION VIEW:

Today we celebrate World Day of Prayer for Vocations. "The harvest is great but the labourers are few. Pray to the Lord of the harvest to send more labourers into the Harvest".

EVENING MASS AT Ss PETER & PAUL'S:

Fr Mick and I would like to introduce an evening Mass at Ss Peter & Paul's on THURSDAY 7.30PM. Our motivation is to provide people in the paid work-force an opportunity to attend a weekday Mass, as well as providing an opportunity for Memorial Masses for people whose relatives have died overseas or who are having a "month's anniversary" Mass for a deceased family member. This Mass will be offered for a number of weeks and we will then gauge if it is being well received and that will determine if we continue.

NEXT WEEK'S READINGS:

5th Sunday of Easter

1st Reading: Acts 6:1-7
2nd Reading: 1Pet 2:4-9
Gospel: Jn 14:1-12

PARISH PRAYER:

God our Father, bless this parish so that we may love you more. Help the parents to be a good example to the children and our youth to grow in strength as good Christians.

Encircle our families with your loving care. To the sick grant health, to the aged bring serenity and to those in sorrow, joy. May we grow stronger in faith and may our love for one another become deeper in our daily living. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS:

Heavenly Father, help us to respond to and live out our mission in the Church, and in the world. Help all your people to know their vocation in life and assist them to live it well.

For your greater glory and for the service of your people, call many to be priests and religious. Give those whom you call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
