UNDERSTANDING THE REVISED MASS TEXT

On Pentecost Sunday (weekend of June 11/12) there will be the introduction of changes to some of the prayers and responses at Mass. The changes will be for both the Priest and the people. Outlined below is the Fourth Theological Principle underpinning the Revised Eucharistic Liturgy and this week the changes to the Nicene Creed. NB: The changes are not changes in the structure or the ritual of the Mass.

The Fourth Theological Principle Underpinning the Revised Eucharistic Liturgy:

Trinity - All liturgical prayer is Trinitarian

- ◆ The Christian Church names God in every liturgy as 'Father, Son and Holy Spirit'. In other words, the relational aspect of the Triune God.
- ◆ The recounting of God's mighty and wonderful deeds for us has as its aim to draw us into the very being of God - the Trinity.
- ◆ Naming the Trinity as three persons is a continual reminder that the triune God is a mystery to be pondered. While the privileged place to do this is at the liturgy, it should also be part of other kinds of prayer.

NICENE CREED

*The Nicene Creed was formulated early in the life of the Christian Church after much discussion, argument and discernment.

PRESENT TEXT

We believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, of one being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit he became incarnate
of the Virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds with the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshipped and glorified. He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins,
we look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

NEW TRANSLATION

I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The text in bold italics are the changes to the revised translation of the Nicene Creed. The most significant change is from the first person plural "WE" to the singular "I". The reason for this change is that it firstly better reflects the literal Latin translation. Secondly, using the singular "I" each person is affirming their own personal faith. This personal affirmation of faith is done in the context of the community at prayer.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER - Thoughts on Giving

"Where I am going you know the way" - Jn 14:4

It is often said that Stewardship is a way of life. Stewardship is certainly the way that Jesus taught us to live. However like us, the Apostles seemed to want Jesus to tell them an easier way to get to heaven. But Jesus told them that they knew what they must do. We all know what we must do. We must do the work of the Lord with our time, our talent and our treasure.

EVENING MASS AT Ss PETER & PAUL'S:

Fr Mick and I would like to introduce an evening Mass at Ss Peter & Paul's this THURSDAY 7.30PM. Our motivation is to provide people in the paid work-force an opportunity to attend a weekday Mass, as well as providing an opportunity for Memorial Masses for people whose relatives have died overseas or who are having a "month's anniversary" Mass for a deceased family member. This Mass will be offered for a number of weeks and we will then gauge if it is being well received and that will determine if we continue.

A VOCATION VIEW:

The new ministry of 'Deacon' is mentioned in today's Scripture. Perhaps the Lord is calling you to assist with the charitable, educational or liturgical needs of the Lord's People today.

FEAST OF MARY HELP OF CHRISTIANS:

Rosary will be prayed 8.45am at Holy Family Church - all welcome!

MASS FOR REPOSE OF THE SOUL

OF FR ANTHONY HALLY:

Thursday Mass, May 26 at 9.15am, will be offered for Fr Hally, Parish Priest of Holy Family 1975-1980

PASTORAL CLUSTER LITURGY MEETING:

7.30pm Tuesday May 24 at the Pastoral Cluster Community Centre. The focus of the meeting will be a review of the Easter Ceremonies and the implementation of the Revised Liturgy.

PARISH PRAYER:

God our Father, bless this parish so that we may love you more. Help the parents to be a good example to the children and our youth to grow in strength as good Christians.

Encircle our families with your loving care. To the sick grant health, to the aged bring serenity and to those in sorrow, joy. May we grow stronger in faith and may our love for one another become deeper in our daily living. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS:

Heavenly Father, help us to respond to and live out our mission in the Church, and in the world. Help all your people to know their vocation in life and assist them to live it well.

For your greater glory and for the service of your people, call many to be priests and religious. Give those whom you call the grace to respond generously and to persevere faithfully. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
