The Pastoral Cluster at Prayer

Over the last six weeks you have been introduced to the revised texts of the Mass. The revision of the texts are not a change to the structure or ritual of the Mass, but rather have been introduced to better reflect the meaning, theology, spirituality and the richness of the Mass.

This time of revision is also opportune to re-visit some of our liturgical 'actions' in the Pastoral Cluster for the same reason. The changes are based on the reflection on the practice of the Pastoral Cluster over the years, and in consultation with the Pastoral Cluster Liturgy Group. Outlined below is the reason for the changes and the changes themselves.

The Reason for the Changes:

Firstly, Jesus said to his disciples "When two or three are gathered in my name, I will be there with them." (Mt 18:20). In the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy (written at the Second Vatican Council), the Catholic Bishops stated that this statement of Jesus acknowledges four ways he is present every time we gather for Mass.

- ◆ The assembly - ie the Community gathered in prayer
- ◆ The Word of God
- ◆ The Priest as he presides
- ◆ The Eucharist

In our liturgical actions we need to acknowledge and affirm Christ's presence amongst us, especially in the Assembly, the Word of God and the Eucharist.

Secondly, one of the signs of the times is that in the busyness of life we need a sacred space to be quiet, reflective and prayerful. Our liturgy should have moments of silence. As many spiritual writers have affirmed, it is in silence we allow God to be truly present to us.

Thirdly, we wish to continue the Pastoral Cluster practice of honouring special "secular feast days" such as Mothers and Fathers Day. In having a focus on these occasions, we are acknowledging Christ's presence in normal life. In the example given we are affirming Christ's presence in the vocation of Parenthood. We also want to continue to celebrate these occasions in a way that engages our school children and their parents.

Fourthly, now that the experience of being a Cluster is better embedded, we need to standardise some of our liturgical practices.

The Changes:

Before Mass -

- ◆ People turn to those around them and greet them
- ◆ Notices are read
- ◆ Significant moments such as Anniversaries are acknowledged and children for Baptism are welcomed
- ◆ If there are Powerpoint presentations, reflections etc, they occur at this time
- ◆ There be a few moments of silence whereby people are invited to reflect on the week that has been, as well as preparing themselves to be attentive to God's Word in light of that week.
- ◆ The Priest returns to the Sacristy to be fully vested.

Start of Mass -

- ◆ The Commentator from the Sanctuary area formally introduces the Mass
- ◆ The Priest processes in with the Reader(s) only. The Special Ministers do not process in.

Liturgy of the Word -

- ◆ After the First, Second and Gospel Readings, there is a significant pause - gradually building up over time. The purpose of the pause is to give you some time to ponder God's Word.
- ◆ The Responsorial Psalm and the Prayers of the Faithful are to be read from within the congregation.

Liturgy of the Eucharist -

- ◆ The Special Ministers come forward at the conclusion of the Lamb of God.
- ◆ Holy Communion can be received under both kinds, ie the Body and Blood of Christ. Those who wish to partake from the Chalice must have a sip and not put the Host in the Chalice (intinction)
- ◆ Before receiving the Host or drinking from the Chalice, a slight reverent bow
- ◆ The Special Minister says "The Body of Christ", the response is "Amen" and again, the Special Minister says "The Blood of Christ", the response is "Amen".

Concluding Rite -

- ◆ At the end of Mass the Priest poses a question, something like "In light of what you have heard in the Scriptures, homily and prayers, what is one specific concrete action you are going to do this week?"
- ◆ The Priest processes out of the Church alone and not with the Readers and Special Ministers.

STEWARDSHIP CORNER - Thoughts on Giving

"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." - John 3:16

How can we say 'thankyou' to the God who has given His only Son to us? What can we give back in return? A life of stewardship is the only way to truly show our love and appreciation to God. A life of stewardship is a life of giving back time, talent and treasure to God.
